KILDARE GAA

Plean Stráitéiseach don Ghaeilge sa Chumann Luthchleas Gael i gCill Dara

Réamhrá.

‘Tá an Ghaeilge ag croílár Chumann Luthchleas Gael’, de réir shuíomh idirlíon na heagraíochta agus is cinnte go bhfuil sé sin le feiceáil d’éinne a thugann fiú sracfhéacahint ar na gníomhaíochtaí ar fad a bhíonn idir lámhe ann.

I gContae Chill Dara, úsáideann go leor clubanna an leagan Gaeilge dá nainmneacha, tá Oifigigh Gaeilge ceaptha ag a lán acu agus go dtí le déanaí bhíodh na fógraí ag Páirc Naomh Connadh dátheangach don chuid is mó. Is i 2019 a thosaigh Fondúireacht Sheosaimh Mhic Dhonncha ag obair sa chonradh, agus ó shin i leith tá 12 chlub i gCill Dara cláraithe agus tá €5,590 bronnta ar na clubanna sin chun cabhrú leo an Ghaeilge a chur chun cinn.

I suirbhé (cuir isteach an méid a d’fhreagair) a chuir na clubanna ar a mbaill féin i 2020 dúirt 73% de na daoine a d’fhreagair gur mhaith leo go mbeadh ‘stádas níos airde ag an nGaeilge i saol oifigiúil an chlub’

Ag deireadh na bliana 2021 beidh 6 chlub tar éis aitheantas a bhaint amach de bharr a gcuid oibre ar son na Gaeilge sa bhFondúireacht, trí bhoinn bheith bronnta orthu i bPáirc an Chrócaigh.

Níl anseo ach an tús, is cinnte go bhfuil a lán clubanna agus baill eile a bhfuil suim acu bheith páirteach ach nár éirigh leo go fóill.

Gan amhras, aithnítear go bhfuil teanga na Gaeilge láidir i gCill Dara, le 8 nGaelscoil agus 2 Gaelcholáiste ag feidhmiú laistigh de theorainneacha an chontae.

Strategic Plan for the Irish Language in the Gaelic Athletic Association in Kildare

Introduction.

‘The Irish language is at the heart of the Gaelic Athletic Association’, according to the organisation’s website and this is certainly visible to anyone who even takes a look at all the activities on offer.

In County Kildare, many clubs use the Irish version of their names, many have appointed Irish Language Officers and until recently the advertisements at Páirc Naomh Connadh were largely bilingual. The Seosaimh Mhic Dhonncha Foundation began working in the county in 2019, and since then 12 clubs in Kildare have been registered and € 5,590 has been awarded to these clubs to help them promote the Irish language.

In a survey (insert response) conducted by the clubs on their members in 2020, 73% of respondents stated that they would like ‘Irish to have a higher status in the official life of the club’

At the end of 2021, 6 clubs in Kildare will have been recognized for their work on behalf of the Irish language in the Foundation, by being awarded medals in Croke Park.

This is just the beginning, there are certainly many clubs and other members who are interested in getting involved but have not yet succeeded.

Undoubtedly, it is recognized that the Irish language is strong in Kildare, with 8 Gaelscoils and 2 Gaelcholáiste operating within the county boundaries.
